

Now more than ever, it's important for us to come together as one technology community. To do just that, we will be hosting our first-ever global, virtual .NEXT conference—the Global .NEXT Digital Experience.

This digital event will combine all of the excitement of both .NEXT 2020 and .NEXT EMEA into a free, multi-day event covering the hottest topics for IT professionals all over the world.

Join us digitally September 8th–10th, 2020 to bring the global IT community All Together Now.

Everything you love about .NEXT—with additional digital benefits:

- Get the best of .NEXT. Find best practices and fresh updates on your most pressing IT topics, like hybrid cloud, hyperconvergence, and way more, in one easy digital format.
- Go at your own pace. Not a morning person? Got afternoon conflicts? Attend sessions at times that suit your own schedule and pause, rewind, and take breaks whenever you need.
- Choose your own .NEXT adventure. Build out your agenda ahead of time to make a personalized game plan to attend your must-see sessions.
- Regional Rebroadcasts. Pacific Daylight time not your timezone? We will be rebroadcasting the hottest content in various local time zones.

- Content in your language. With added technology to our digital platform, there will be real-time translations for multiple languages.
